TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 11, 2011

IN REMEMBRANCE

This is a solemn and sad weekend for America and for all peace-loving people throughout the world. We remember the tragic events of September 11, 2001, when our country was attacked by terrorists. Anyone over 17 can recall where they were when they heard the news unfolding. Before anyone was aware of the truth, I remember thinking, "How can a plane fly into a huge building by mistake?" (It actually had happened long ago to the Empire State Building.) Then it became apparent something was going on — a plane hits the World Trade Center, then one goes down in a field in Pennsylvania, then the other WTC tower and then the Pentagon. All of America was truly terrified in the deepest sense of the word. Certainly we in Chicago had good reason for our fears, as a leading city in the country.

Since then, we have uncovered who was responsible and suddenly realized the world is facing a new kind of enemy. Most important to remember is that these people are fanatics. And fanatics of any stripe — Muslim, Christian, whatever — will always leave destruction in their wake. In retaliation, America went to war in Afghanistan, where there was clear evidence that the country was involved and Iraq, where there was not.

The tone of life in the United States has changed. On September 11, we lost our swagger. We have to go through humiliating searches at airports and hear announcements about "suspicious packages" on CTA trains. The attacks have cost us billions of dollars in security and war. Our attitude towards Muslims turned ugly as did our attitudes towards all immigrants.

This is a day of tension for us. The Gospel reminds us of the absolute necessity for forgiveness to our salvation, yet we can't help but feel anger and resentment for the attacks. But forgiveness does not mean we simply dismiss how we have been wronged. We have a right to defend ourselves. At the same time, we cannot paint all Muslims with the same brush and allow ourselves to fall into bigotry. It is a fine line to walk. Even after ten years, the wounds are raw.

But most of all, today we remember the thousands of people who died in the attacks and the beautiful, brave men and women of our armed forces who had lost their lives too early, too soon. We pray for the families that are still trying to pick up the pieces, come to understanding, come to peace. We also pray for our country's leaders, that they will be guided in their decisions, not only so America can be great and prosperous, but so we can be decent and live in justice, peace and liberty.

A HERO OF OUR OWN

This past week, Chicago said "goodbye" to one of our own heroes. Father Jim Close ran the Mercy Home for Boys and Girls for decades. When he was asked by Cardinal Cody to take the position, he knew nothing of how to care for children, run an orphanage or raise funds. He was a quick learner. He saved thousands of young people from the mean streets of Chicago and others from neglect or abuse at home. He taught them life skills so they could lead productive and independent lives. Father Jim Close was a man who was called and stepped up to the challenge. His legacy continues under Father Scott Donahue. Mercy Home for Boys and Girls will stand as a living monument to a great man, a great servant and a great priest.

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
(RCIA)

- Not a Catholic?
- Thinking about becoming a Catholic?
- Baptized in another faith?
- Like to know more about the Catholic faith?

The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) is the Catholic Church's way of bringing new members into the community of faith. It can be looked at as the "formation program" for those entering the Church.

Who should consider RCIA?

- People who have never been baptized in any faith,
- Baptized Christians who wish to enter the Catholic Church,
- Catholics who were baptized as small children, but have not learned much about their faith and have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

Timeline for RCIA

RCIA will begin at St. Pascal on September 11, 2011 at 10:30am Mass. On Holy Saturday evening, April 7, 2012 the Easter Vigil, the unbaptized will receive the Sacrament of Baptism, and everyone will receive the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

To add your name to the RCIA list, or for more information, please contact Deacon Gene Dorgan at 773-725-7641 or email: edorgan@stpascal.org.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
SAINT PASCAL CONFERENCE

Louise de Marillac co-founded the Daughters of Charity in 1633 with her spiritual advisor, Vincent de Paul. She was canonized in 1934. Pope John XXIII proclaimed her the patron saint of all Christian social workers in 1960. She is a patroness of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. She wrote: "Because Jesus took our misery upon Himself, it is only reasonable that we should follow and imitate His holy human life....Filled with consolation and happiness at the thought of being accepted by Him to live my entire life as His follower, I resolved that in everything, particularly in uncertain or questionable circumstances, I would consider what Jesus would have done....All the actions and the entire life of the Son of God are only for our example and instruction..." (Gibson and Kneaves, Praying with Louise)

This is a truly perfect Christian reflection of every-one's relationship to God through Jesus.

FETAL DEVELOPMENT

I've got finger prints and toe prints. If I am born now I have a chance of living, with intensive care. But, I think I'll wait since it's so comfortable where I am.

Thanks for being my guardian angel.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer or Canon of the Mass is the central prayer of the entire celebration. Most Catholics have been made aware from their earliest days that during the Eucharistic Prayer the bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. What many Catholics are not aware of, however, is that the Eucharistic Prayer is about more than adoring Christ who becomes present in our midst.

The Church tells us that liturgy (and the Mass is the highpoint and heart of liturgy) is the action of Christ the priest and His Body, the Church. In the celebration of Mass, during the Eucharistic Prayer, not only does Christ become present, body and blood, soul and divinity, under the forms of bread and wine, but Christ's saving action, His passion, death and resurrection are once again enacted and offered to the Father by Christ Himself in the person of the priest, and by all present.

This is a truth of enormous significance!. This action of Christ which brought about our redemption from sin and eternal death, offered once for all on Calvary, becomes present again for us, here and now, in this time and place, so that we can join in Christ's perfect offering and can ourselves participate in His perfect worship.

Read carefully any of the Eucharistic Prayers. You will see that that prayer is offered, not to Christ, but to the Father: Father, you are holy indeed ...; Father, we bring you these gifts ...; Father, we ask you ... It is worship offered to the Father by Christ as it was at the moment of His passion, death and resurrection, but now it is offered through the priest acting in the person of Christ, and it is offered as well by all of us who are part of Christ's Body, the Church. This is the action of Christ's Body, the Church at Mass.

When the priest prays this prayer he prays we bring you these gifts; we ask you ...; we offer. That we signifies that all the baptized present at this Eucharistic celebration make this offering in union with Christ, pray this prayer in union with Him. And what is most important, we do not offer Christ alone; we are called to offer ourselves, our lives, our individual efforts to grow more like Christ and our efforts as a community of believers to spread God's Word and to serve God's people, to the Father in union with Christ through the hands of the priest. Most wonderful of all, although our offering is in itself imperfect, joined with the offering of Christ it becomes perfect praise and thanksgiving to the Father.

And so, during the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass, we have more to do than to look forward to the moment of consecration and remain there while the prayer of the priest continues. Before the consecration we join in the prayer of praise and thanksgiving to the Father known as the Preface and affirm that praise and thanksgiving in our singing of the Holy, Holy, Holy. Following the Consecration we join together in the Memorial Acclamation which proclaims our common faith in Christ's real presence and is an acclamation expressing our gratitude to Christ for His wonderful gift of salvation. But then our prayer moves on and we are called to offer Christ, and ourselves with Christ to the Father: 'We offer to you, Father, this holy and living sacrifice...' and to pray with the priest that 'we who are nourished by His Body and Blood may be filled with the Holy Spirit and become one body, one spirit in Christ...'; we then join our prayers with the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints for our Holy Father the Pope, our bishops and clergy and all God's people, living and dead. At the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer the priest sums up all that has gone before: 'Through Him (Christ), with Him (Christ), in Him (Christ) in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, forever and ever.' And we who are privileged to make our own offering through, with and in Christ, respond with the most important acclamation of the Mass, the great AMEN by which we profess the action of Christ to be our action as well.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"None of us lives for oneself...whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:7-8 Whatever we have in this life, we have because God gave it to us. We may think that we get all the credit for our success. However, the reality is that we are only working with the gifts that God gave us - including our family background, our natural abilities, our education and the opportunities that have crossed our paths. All of these are gifts from God. Our very lives are a gift from God and thus belong to Him. This is why we must take time every day to ask God how He wants us to use the life He has given us.
