WHAT DO I DO WITH THIS?????

One of the things that is distinctive about Catholicism is that we use “things” to help us grasp some parts of our faith. So for instance, we have statues of Jesus, Mary, Joseph and the saints. This function is very similar to us, just as the family pictures we keep in our wallet or purse. When praying, sometimes it helps to have words given to us rather than making up our own, so we use prayer books, or we use a rosary. We wear medals and scapula to remind us of our need to invoke the protection of the saints. These items, because of what they remind us of, are important. But like everything else in this world, they can break or wear out or just fall apart.

Once in a while, someone will present me with a bag of broken religious items and ask me to do something with them. Well, now is the time to clean out those drawers and find those religious items that are no longer usable. On Sunday, October 23 at 2 PM by the Senior Center, we will retire these items by burying them in the ground. This is a proper and respectful way to dispose of such items. There are containers at the doors of the church for these items. Please bring them in as much in advance as possible. Items might include broken rosaries, old prayer books, Bibles, medals or statues. We would ask that you NOT bring things like novena cards. Please plan on joining us for this event at 2 PM and then stay for the Respect Life Holy Hour at 2:30 PM in the church.

KEEPING KIDS SAFE

Don't forget the new curfew hours are in effect! Children under 12 are to be indoors after 8:30 PM, Sunday through Thursday and at 9 PM on Friday and Saturday. Those between 12 and 16 have a curfew at 10 PM Sunday through Thursday and 11 PM on Friday and Saturday. Curfew ends at 6 AM the following day. Some exceptions are children with a parent or guardian; on the sidewalk by their own house; attending school, religious or recreational activities supervised by adults; work, or an emergency. Let's keep our kids safe and out of trouble!

MONEY IN YOUR POCKET

The Saint Pascal Thanksgiving Raffle will be held Sunday, November 20 at 2 PM. The prizes total $25,000 cash! Top prize is $10,000! Forty-four cash prizes will be awarded. We will sell only 4000 tickets. But between us, we usually sell only about 2000. That means you have an approximate 1 in 50 chance of winning something. And with the markets the way they are, it might be a safer investment! But seriously, it definitely WILL be a great investment in our parish. So buy your tickets, sell your tickets, whatever you can do will be tremendously appreciated.

WORDS OF THE WISE TO THE WISE

I recently ran across an article from last April about the death of the world's oldest man, Walter Breuning, who died at the age of 114. I have kept a clipping from the Sun-Times of September 22, 2010, reporting his last birthday. In it Mr. Bruening is quoted as saying that people may enjoy life but they can't be content without a belief or faith. And he said, "With all the hatred in this world, in this good world, let us be kind to one another." Words to live by.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK— Saturday, October 15 @ 4:00 PM Mass

"Is any among you sick? Let him call for the presbyters of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick man, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven" (Jas 5:14-15).

If you have a chronic or terminal illness, are facing serious surgery, or are aging, you are encouraged to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick at the 4 PM Mass on Saturday, October 15th. The special grace of this sacrament has as its effects:

- ✦ the uniting of the sick person to the passion of Christ, for his own good and that of the whole Church;
- ✦ the strengthening, peace, and courage to endure in a Christian manner the sufferings of illness or old age;
- ✦ the forgiveness of sins, if the sick person was not able to obtain it through the sacrament of Penance;
- ✦ the restoration of health, if it is conducive to the salvation of his soul;
- ✦ the preparation for passing over to eternal life.

If you are in need of this sacrament, please join us at the 4 PM Mass on October 15. Pews will be reserved at the front of the church. We ask that a pew be left empty between each pew for the sick, so the priests can move freely to anoint everyone. If you have any questions, or are planning to be anointed, please call the rectory at 725-7641, so we will have some idea how many pews to reserve.

SAINT PASCAL CONFERENCE

THANK YOU! The Bundle Days clothing drive last month was a success because of your generous donations. A special THANKS to Knights of Columbus, Mater Christi Council, for the donation of clothing and kitchenware not sold at their Rummage Sale. The SVDP trailer was filled to near capacity, and the merchandise was in the SVDP warehouse the following Monday. By now, the clothing and all the utensils, etc., have been distributed to the SVDP stores and to the distribution centers for the victims of the recent hurricanes that hit the East Coast and the Gulf of Mexico. Be assured that the recipients of the clothing and other supplies will be grateful to you for bringing them comfort and hope at a time they are in most need of support.

St. Pascal's is certainly a caring faith community. For this, our SVDP conference also gives THANKS.

A primary task for the pro-life movement is to draw society into deeper reflection about the mystery, wonder and value of human life. We need to promote an alternative to the technological outlook which seeks to control and manipulate birth and death, to reduce nature to "matter", to elevate having over being, to depersonalize the body and sexuality, and to replace the criterion of personal dignity with the criterion of efficiency, functionality and usefulness. Our task is to call our brothers and sisters' hearts and minds to wonder and awe. ~Cardinal George Pell, Archbishop of Sydney, "Mystery of Life Grand Prix Award Address," January 17, 2008 U.S. Conference

"Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you." (Second reading)

What has God said to you about enriching your marriage? Take some well deserved time for just the two of you to deepen your communication, strengthen your relationship, rekindle your romance and renew your sacrament by attending the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekends for the Chicago/Northwest Indiana area on November 4-6, 2011 or January 27-29, 2012. Early registration is highly recommended. For reservations/information, call Jim & Kris at 1-800-442-3554 or contact us through www.wmchicago-gary.org. Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Each Sunday at the celebration of the Eucharist, Christ sends us out into the world to share in his mission: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." World Mission Sunday is a universal celebration of this call to mission as it is lived out by the whole Church.

The call to mission is made manifest each day as the Church endeavors to make Christ known to the world. This is done through direct proclamation of who Christ is and through the many services that the Church provides in every country throughout the world. Children are educated, the sick are nursed, the elderly and disabled are visited and cared for, adults are given opportunities for faith formation, seminarians and religious women and men are given resources to grow spiritually and intellectually, all in the name of Christ.

A commitment to mission strengthens our faith and invigorates parish life. Once we have encountered Christ and experience the grace of conversion, we are sent as missionary disciples into the world to give witness to Christ. Our responsibility for mission never lessens because "the pilgrim Church on earth is missionary by its very nature." World Mission Sunday is our yearly reminder of how the whole Church shares in the mission of Christ at home and abroad.

Blessed Pope John Paul II reminded us that the Church's mission is "very far from completion." We are called to go beyond the borders of our parishes and neighborhoods and reach out to people who still do not know Christ and to those who have abandoned faith in Christ. We are all on mission, and today we pause to reflect on the missionary efforts of the Church throughout the world.

Please join me in renewing our commitment to mission as an archdiocese. I ask you to pray for the work of the Pontifical Mission Societies and missionaries throughout the world. I encourage you to promote their work in your parish, in religious education programs and schools. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to deepen our desire to be on mission and give us the grace to be zealous in spreading our faith. May God bless you and reward you for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
 Archbishop of Chicago

✠✠✠ Liturgical Participation

The celebration of Mass is an act of the whole assembly gathered for worship. In the Mass, the Church is joined to the action of Christ. We are joined to this divine action through Baptism, which incorporates us into the risen Christ. This action, which lies at “the center of the whole of Christian life” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], no. 16), is initiated not by us but by God acting in and through the Church as the Body of the risen Christ. The Liturgy is designed to bring about in all those who make up the worshipping assembly a “participation of the faithful, namely in body and in mind, a participation fervent with faith, hope, and charity” (GIRM, no. 18). To the extent that we are able to participate in this way, the work of redemption becomes personally effective for each of us. By such participation we make the actions and prayers of the Liturgy our own; we enter more fully into our personal communion with Christ’s redeeming act and perfect worship.

“In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people of God’s own possession and a royal priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him, and so that they may learn to offer their very selves. They should, moreover, take care to show this by their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them in the same celebration. . . . Moreover, they are to form one body, whether in hearing the word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by a participating together at the Lord’s table” (GIRM, nos. 95, 96).

The participation of each person in the Liturgy is important. Each person needs to do his or her part.

ORDAINED MINISTRIES IN THE LITURGY

Bishops and priests are called to act in the Liturgy in the very person of Christ, on behalf of his people, pronouncing the most sacred prayers of our faith, presiding over the celebration of the sacred mysteries, explaining God’s Word and feeding God’s People on the Body and Blood of Christ. A bishop has the added responsibility of being the chief shepherd, the principal liturgist of his diocese in his role as the successor of the Apostles. By God’s grace others are ordained to the ministry of deacon. In the celebration of the Mass deacons proclaim the Gospel, occasionally preach the homily, and assist the bishop and priest in exercising their sacred duties.

OTHER LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

In addition to the ordained ministries, some roles in the Liturgy are exercised by lay people who place their time and talent at the service of the liturgical assembly as acolytes (altar servers), lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, cantors, choir members, instrumentalists, leaders of song, and ushers. Others contribute their time and talent to planning and organizing the Liturgy; to keeping the church and the vestments, vessels, and appointments clean and well ordered; or to providing decorations that reflect the spirit of the liturgical feast or season.

This variety of offices and roles is desirable and should be maintained. It is desirable that individuals function in roles of service at Mass. For example, if a deacon is present, the priest celebrant or a concelebrant should not read the Gospel. The lector should not take on the role of a server or an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. A wide variety of services needs to be performed, and it is preferable that different individuals exercise those services so that the talents and gifts God has placed within the Christian community are fully used and that these roles of service are not monopolized by a few.

Those engaged in liturgical roles need to be well prepared for those roles and to know how to carry them out with reverence, dignity, and understanding. Receiving the proper preparation requires a further gift of time on the part of the person being prepared as well as on the part of those in the parish responsible for the training of liturgical ministers. Finally, the practical task of assigning individuals to particular Masses and organizing the distribution of roles is another indispensable element in the fabric of well-ordered liturgical ministry in a parish.

All the baptized need to understand that part of their duty regarding the Liturgy is to accept some responsibility for the Liturgy, to place themselves and their God-given talents at the service of the liturgical community whenever possible. Whether one brings up the gifts at the Presentation; reads the Word of God; assists with the distribution of Communion and brings the Eucharist to those unable to be present at Mass; serves at the altar; provides music that augments the joy, solemnity, and festivity of the celebration; or serves the assembled community as an usher, he or she is contributing to the worship of the community and fulfilling the responsibility that comes with Baptism.

Not all members of the parish community will have the time, energy, strength, or ability to serve in these roles. However, individuals must be careful not to excuse themselves too easily. What is important is that all understand that the celebration of Liturgy is not just the responsibility of the pastor, although he is delegated by the bishop to oversee the liturgical life of the parish. Pastors need the help of people who are serious about living out their baptismal right and responsibility to worship.

THE ROLE OF THE BAPTIZED

This catalog of specialized roles might give the impression that those who are not exercising one of these roles are free to sit back passively and simply let the Liturgy happen around them. Nothing could be further from the truth. Those who come together for Liturgy do not have the luxury of acting as spectators, waiting for all to be done for them. “Full, conscious, and active participation” in the Liturgy (as commended by the Second Vatican Council) is not only their right but also their duty and their responsibility. That responsibility includes full engagement throughout the liturgical celebration. The baptized faithful who form the congregation are called to join in praise and thanksgiving in song and spoken word, to listen attentively to God’s Word, and to exercise their baptismal priesthood in prayer for the Church, the world, and all in need during the General Intercessions.

In the Liturgy of the Eucharist the baptized faithful join their prayer to that of the priest celebrant, offering Christ the Victim, “not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him,” and offer themselves as well (GIRM, no. 95). Their participation culminates in the reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord, the sacrament that unites them more fully with Christ their Head and with one another. We need to be aware, therefore, that “participation” does not refer primarily to external activity or function during the celebration of Mass; rather, it refers to a deeply spiritual, interior participation of mind and heart, filled with devotion and penetrating the very depths of the mysteries we celebrate.

In their sincere efforts to participate, those present minister to the priest celebrant, to others who serve in liturgical roles, and to one another. Their attention and active engagement in the celebration can draw from the priest celebrant and the other ministers the best they have to offer. Their enthusiastic song and verbal responses made with conviction can encourage others to sing and respond; their very presence at the celebration of Mass when so many other enticing options might have been chosen instead supports and reinforces others who have made the same choice.

The Liturgy, then, is about the action of God’s own people, each with different offices and roles. When we play our roles in the Liturgy with our bodies, minds, and hearts fully engaged, we make to God a perfect sacrifice of praise.

Ministry of Praise

If you're looking for a ministry that you can join without the commitment of monthly meetings, then this may be for you!

If you're not sure what ministry you can join because you are ill, have a handicap, are home bound or are a senior citizen, then this may be for you!

The Ministry of Praise is a spiritual ministry in which you offer all prayers, joys and sufferings to God for the salvation of souls. How great and important is that?

Please contact the Rectory if you are interested in joining.

Please remember all our faithful departed.

Patrick Brennan.
